This was the first meeting of the council since Governor Dole's return, and the time was taken up principally with the presentation of reports from department heads.

An application was received from the Honolulu Rapid Transit Co. for permission to lay its tracks along King street from Liliha to Victoria street, and was laid over to a day when the matter could be presented by the officials of the company.

TIED HORSE TO HACK.

Sakoba, a Japanese hackman, got s few pointers from Judge Wilcox yesterday on how to conduct a vehicle of that kind properly. The Jap, it appears, had tied his horse to the wheel of another hack, and the strap had been broken when the first driver drove minutes slower than Greenwich time, be-ing that of the meridian of 157 degrees 30 man had been asleep, and he had been minutes. The time whistle blows at 1:30 gone but a few minutes when the other man drove away, naturally permitting his horse to have its liberty.

"That's not the proper way to tie your horse," said Judge Wilcox, "That is a foolish way. You had better go up into Nuuanu valley; there is a little side valley up there, where all the fools come from, and you can go there now." The Judge said that he didn't quite understand all the hack regulations. "This is the latest edition of Mr. Boyd's rules," he said, as he picked a book from his desk. "He changes the rules about every month now, and I have to keep up with the times.
